

Oklahoma City International Folk Dancers
43rd ANNUAL OLD COUNTRY
WEEKEND

November 6-8, 2026
Cross Point Camp, Kingston, OK

Featuring
Something new, something old if we may be so bold

We are going to try something that we did around the beginning of COVID, when we used our own local talent for teaching, pulling from our extensive repertoire. We had a wonderful time, and the camp had a more relaxed and intimate feel to it.

Live Music by Don Weeda (accordion), Mike Revesz (vocals and percussion), & Kathleen McDonagh (vocals and ukelele). They are members of Slavadillo, an ensemble from Austin, Texas

Don Weeda has been playing live music for our Old Country Weekend event for many years. Anne Alexander used to play with him, but she has moved to Oregon. Mike and Kathleen have played with Don for a very long time and perform with him and others at the annual TIFD Texas Camp event. Don never ceases to amaze and delight us with his enormous repertoire of international folkdance music, and we are looking forward to Mike and Kathleen adding their talents to the pool!

Old Country Weekend

COVID GUIDELINES:

Pre-Camp:

- All campers and staff should perform an Individual Health Check before coming. Please stay home if you're not well or not sure.

At Camp:

- At Cross Point Camp, a waiver must be signed on arrival (provided by Cross Point Camp).
- We are currently not planning on requiring masks while dancing for this event, and vaccinations are not required.
- If there are other groups at Cross Point Camp, they have agreed to stagger meals.
- Hand sanitizer stations will be available in the dining and dance area.

NOTE that cancellations related to contraction of COVID will be accepted right up to the date of the event this year. You will need to provide a photo of the positive test strip (if home test), or a scanned copy of the test results, if not a home test.

Looking forward to seeing people and having some lovely dance time together!
